FEATURED SPEAKER:*Anne Seymour

Anne Seymour has 30 years of experience as a national victim advocate. She is a Co-founder of and Senior Advisor to the Washington, D.C.-based national non-profit Justice Solutions, and Consultant to the Pew Center on the States Public Safety Performance Project.

Seymour has developed and implemented training and technical assistance programs to strengthen victims' rights and services in law enforcement, prosecution, the judiciary, juvenile justice, restorative justice and community and institutional corrections. Her extensive research includes co-authoring the landmark study Rape in America: A Report to the Nation in 1992; she is the principal author of the American Correctional Association's Report and Recommendations on Victims of Juvenile Offenders published in 1994, as well as of the Office for Victims of Crime Special Report on Victims of Gang Violence. Seymour is a principal author of the National Victim Assistance Academy texts sponsored by the Office for Victims of Crime, as well co-author of the NVAA's advanced offerings, including the "Ultimate Educator" Training-for-Trainers" text and the "Leadership in Victim Services" text. She has served as a Consultant to over ten State Victim Assistance Academies.

She has authored or contributed to over 30 curricula and texts published by the Office for Victims of Crime since 1989, including "The Victim Role in Offender Reentry" and "Creating a Victim Focus: A Guide to Working with Victims During Offender Reentry" books. Seymour was also the Director of the OVC Strategic Planning Toolkit Project, and served as its principal author and editor, and coordinator of a national "training for planners" and Statewide Strategic Planning Conference for six states, both held in 2003. She was the Project Director for OVC's Oral History Project, and its National Public Awareness and Education Campaign. Seymour is also a consultant and trainer for the U.S. Department of State to help improve services to American citizens who are victimized abroad, and is Co-investigator on the first project to determine mental health problems in Vietnam. She has appeared in virtually every news medium -- including all network morning shows and evening newscasts, Nightline, Larry King Live, Crossfire, The Oprah Winfrey Show, and Frontline -- as an expert on crime victims' rights.

Seymour lives in Washington, DC where she enjoys gardening, cooking and cheering for her beloved Green Bay Packers.

FEATURED SPEAKER:*Earl L. Suttle, Ph.D.

"Empowerment through education and enthusiasm" is the mission statement of Earl Suttle, who is trained as a clinical psychologist and is an internationally recognized keynote speaker, seminar leader, and management consultant. He is the Founder and President of Three E Corporation, an international leadership consulting and training corporation based in the Atlanta, Georgia area. Earl Suttle annually delivers over 75 energizing and entertaining presentations in the US and South Africa. He is also the author of several motivational audiotapes on leadership and personal development. His subject matter is versatile; seminars include topics such as leadership, stress management, coping with change, and embracing diversity and inclusion in the workplace. He has conducted keynote addresses and seminars for AFLAC, The Coca-Cola Company, American Express, Kimberly-Clark Corporation, U.S. Postal Service, Kraft Foods, The Hartford Insurance Group, Georgia Department of Labor, Cobb Energy, Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc., the University of Miami, the University of Georgia, and many more. Earl is also a consultant to the National Basketball Association and National Football League where he works with players on a personal level. He is married to Felicia Mabuza-Suttle, South Africa's top-rated television talk-show host, and is the proud father of one son Darron and two daughters, Lindi and Zani.

"This project is supported by a National Crime Victims' Right Week Community Awareness Project sub grant awarded by the National Association of VOCA Assistance Administrators under a Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) grant from the Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice."
